How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons' Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.
As a general family remedy for dyspepsia, torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed. It is the best product; it seems to cure a perfect cure for all diseases of the Liver and Bowels.

Domestic Economy.

I know a family moving in good society, people of refined tastes, educated and accomplished, who keep no domestic. The three daughters do all the work, which is systematically divided into parts, so that each one has her share. The youngest girl takes care of the house and the glassware. The two older ones do the cooking and table setting and up stairs work. They are all paid a much a week besides their board. They are busy now pickling and preserving with their mother as teacher, and there is this peculiarity about their system of work:

If any fruit is call they can go right into the kitchen where they will find the pretty housekeepers at work. They are not tied up in bags or swathed in big bib aprons. Their neat gingham dresses are as clean as if they had been sitting in a hammock, their white aprons protecting them from the stains of labor, and their hair is smooth and natural, not hidden under any dusting cap.

"Because we don't have dust," they explain. "We never leave anything over, or let dirt accumulate, and we like housework much better than playing lawn tennis in the hot sun."

Each I "didn't have to," as the children say, tell the rest of it. These girls are all engaged to be married, and the two eldest had the question popped to them in the kitchen where they were making jelly tarts a la queen of hearts, while the best young man of the youngest domestic of this happy family proposed to her while he was helping her polish the glassware. Jolly, isn't it, though, and awfully independent.—Detroit Free Press.

A Philadelphia funeral team did service at a wedding a few days ago, and the driving driver allowed the horse to carry the bridal couple into the cemetery.

HON. GEO. BROWN, Of Storey
HON. W. J. WESTERFIELD, Of Lyon
SENATOR STEWART'S POSITION.

Senator W. M. Stewart arrived in town on the late train last night. He will take the stump against Harrison, Cleveland and all other representatives of the gold ring and for the Silver Electors and for Weaver and Field.—Silver State.

Our people are glad to know that Stewart has come down off the fence and declared himself. He is no longer a Republican or entitled to any Republican support. Now let us see if the Weaver ghost party can return him to the Senate.—Carson Tribune.

The Tribune is one of the few papers in Nevada which supports Harrison for President and Woodburn for Congress. It is more candid and therefore entitled to more respect than the other gold bug organs. It declares that Senator Stewart is no longer a Republican or entitled to any Republican support because he says he will take the stump for Weaver, the only free coinage candidate in the field, and against Harrison and Cleveland and all other representatives of the gold ring.

The Tribune is not attempting to deceive by pretending to favor free coinage while advocating the election of a President who is opposed to it, as the Gazette and Enterprise do. It draws the party line at Harrison and other representatives of the gold ring and counts as Republicans only those who support them.

The Tribune need have no fears, however, of the ability and disposition of the Weaver or Silver party to return Wm. M. Stewart to the Senate. His services in the cause of silver and his determination to take the stump for the only free coinage candidate for President, ought to and will insure the vote of every citizen of Nevada who places State prosperity above party success.

ACCOUNTED FOR.
The many reports coming through many different persons who have traveled extensively in California that that State would go for Weaver and Field have been received with considerable doubt. But since the Evangelist Mills has succeeded in turning thousands of sinners in the sin-stricken city of San Francisco from the slums and vices of the city, to the threshold or the church and Sunday School, and even merchants, lawyers, politicians and judges meet regularly at the noon prayer meetings, it shows that there is a God in Israel and that the scales of vice and prejudice are dropping from the eyes of the most hardened specimens of humanity, and the devil's tattoo is losing its charms and power of calling the unsuspecting victims at the dead hour of night to the orgies of the houses and pot-house politicians. The thousands of business men in that city must necessarily, under the divine economy of heaven, join in with the party which is destined to reform the practice of the government, otherwise they must backslide into the slums and fifth, crimes and crooked ways of the old parties, and their State will be worse than their first.—Hawthorne Bulletin.

A. J. Hunter, who accompanied Stevenson, the Democratic candidate for Vice President, in a speech at Indianapolis attacked the People's party and advised his hearers if they believe the Democratic party is wrong to vote for Harrison. In this State men who have been honored with office and position by the Democratic party openly proclaim that they would prefer the election of Harrison to Weaver. Men pretending to be friends of silver prefer the election of either of the Wall street candidates to that of the free coinage candidate.

A dispatch to the Rocky Mountain News says the Arkansas election was a farce and returns have been suppressed so let the ballot box stuffers down easy and give the required majority in every county. So far returns from twenty-one counties give Fishback (Democrat), 7,603 majority. Clay, the great Republican boss, helped the Democrats in every possible way.

The Democratic State Convention of Colorado is composed of two factions, one of which wants Cleveland electors and the other Weaver electors. The Republicans and Democrats are divided in the Centennial State as hopelessly as they are in the Silver State, and the Weaver men are in the ascendancy in both parties.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS
Matters of Interest From Home and Abroad.

Cholera.
WASHINGTON, September 14.—No official report has been received at the Treasury Department concerning the deaths from cholera in New York City, and the officials are very reluctant to give credence to the press dispatches announcing the fact. It is realized that confirmation meant serious interruption in trade relations throughout the entire country. To make the situation even more grave there came an official report from the marine hospital service ship that she may arrive at New Orleans to-day with four cases of another dreaded scourge, yellow fever, on board. Immigration Commissioner Webster at New York to-day notified the Treasury Department that he is now supplying incoming immigrants with certificates to the effect that they were examined and found healthy and that they would not be subjected to long quarantine detention in the Western States as they go to new homes.

New York, September 14.—President Wilson of the Board of Health said this evening that there was no occasion for excitement in this city. The Health Department has taken every possible precaution to prevent a spread of the infection. Sanitary Superintendent Edson said there was no danger of cholera becoming epidemic. When real cold weather sets in it will have the effect of stamping out the disease.

Evans and Sontag.
SANTA ANA, Cal., September 14.—Nothing new in reference to Evans and Sontag since the inquest this morning. At 4 o'clock another posse started to the mountains in search of the desperadoes. Frank Burke and his two Yuma Indian trailblazers started for Yuma, accompanying the remains of Detective Wilson. Burke will return in a few days, but the Indians say they will not come back.
There is talk of petitioning Governor Markham for a large reward for Evans and Sontag, dead or alive. People are asking why those evidently assisting the outlaws are not arrested, as it is certain some of them, easily named, are carrying communications from Evans to his wife and otherwise assisting the robbers.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 14.—The dispatches from the Associated Press correspondents in Fresno, Visalia and Sanger state that the reports sent out last night that more than two persons were killed by Evans and Sontag at Sampson Flat yesterday were incorrect. The only persons killed were U. S. Deputy Marshal Wilson of Tucson and Andrew McGinnis of San Francisco, formerly Constable at Modesto.

Democratic Encouragement.
NEW YORK, September 14.—The Democratic National Committee issued the following address: "The Democratic National Committee congratulates the country on the result of the recent State elections in Maine, Vermont and Arkansas. In Arkansas combined opposition fell short by over 30,000 of the vote of the Democracy alone. This brought dismay to the combination in the South and to its manipulators in the North. In Maine and Vermont the contest was conducted distinctly on national issues. The Republican managers summoned to their aid all the potent resources of their national organization, with an exhaustless treasury and a splendid equipment of orators. Our friends everywhere are entitled to take fresh courage from the result."

Prayed for the Wrong Man.
ST. WOLFE, Texas, September 14.—The Republican State Convention met again this morning and the feature of the opening session was the prayer of "Sin Killer" Griffin, a negro preacher, who prayed for God to bless George Clark, the independent Democratic candidate for Governor. This brought down the house and the convention took a recess until this afternoon.

Died in an Asylum.
SAN FRANCISCO, September 14.—A private telegram states that Rev. Charles Dana Barrows for several years pastor of the First Congregational Church, died to-day in the Worcester, Mass., Insane Asylum. Mr. Barrows went east about two years ago, pending an investigation of charges of immorality against him and had been confined in the asylum about a year.

A Lone Highwayman.
AMARCO, N. M., September 14.—The mail from Pagosa Springs to Amarco was held up yesterday by a lone highwayman. One passenger was robbed of a small sum, and about a thousand dollars was taken from registered mail packages.
Cheaper to Live Than Die.
CHICAGO, September 14.—The National Association of Coffin Manufacturers in session here propose to make it more expensive to die than live. They are talking of advancing the price of coffins not less than 10 per cent and perhaps more.

Stevenson in Asheville.
ASHEVILLE, N. C., September 15.—Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson arrived here this evening. He held an informal reception at the hotel with three hours' handshaking. Tomorrow a great mass meeting is to be held.
Claims to be Dictator.
WASHINGTON, September 14.—The State Department was informed by telegraph from San Jose, Costa Rica that President Rodriguez declared himself dictator in that country. Great excitement prevails.

Werts Nominated.
TENTON, September 14.—At the Democratic Convention to-day Judge Werts and E. F. C. Young were placed in nomination for Governor. Werts was nominated.
Republican Nominations.
BOZON, September 14.—The Republican State Convention to-day nominated Wm. H. Hale for Governor and Roger Walcott for Lieutenant Governor.

TO PREVENT CHOLERA.
Keep Clean and Eat Thoroughly Cooked Food.
The newspapers are publishing the following issued by Boards of Health in the Eastern cities: "Thorough cooking destroys the cholera germs, therefore don't eat raw, uncooked articles of any kind, not even milk. Don't eat or drink to excess. Use plain, wholesome, digestible food, as indigestion and diarrhea favor an attack of cholera. Don't eat or drink articles unless they have been thoroughly and recently cooked or boiled, and the more recent and hotter they are the safer."
"Personal cleanliness, and cleanliness of the living and sleeping rooms and their contents and thorough ventilation should be rigidly enforced."
"Foot water closets, sinks, cellars, etc., should be avoided, and when present should be avoided, and should be referred to the Health Board at once and remedied."
"Don't doctor yourself for bowel complaints, but go to bed and send for the nearest physician at once. Don't be frightened but do be cautious and avoid excesses and unnecessary exposures of every kind."

The State Fair.
Every day brings forth new assurance of the successful termination of the Eighth Annual State Fair, which commences next Monday. The speed program is one of the best, if not the best, that has ever been the fortune of the directors to arrange. The live stock exhibits will equal any of the former exhibits, and in regard to finely bred horses, it will surpass all previous displays. Every stall has been engaged and applications are still coming in.
Of course, no fair can be a success without the liberal patronage of the people, and this is no exception. However, the managers can rest assured on this point, for besides those who have already arrived our hotel men are receiving applications for the scores for house room during the week.

The bicycle races will be a feature in themselves and the interest manifested by bicyclists assures a success in this line.
At the Pavilion the lady managers are getting in readiness to place exhibits in position.
The people of Reno will extend their usual courteous treatment to visitors and will spare no pains to make them comfortable and happy.

Better Than a Savings Bank.
If you have faith in the future prosperity of the city of Reno, Nevada, invest in well located town lots and you will surely double your money in the next few years. If you cannot buy a lot yourself you can take stock in the Reno Real Estate and Investment Co. and participate in the investments that this corporation will make. The company propose to purchase centrally located property and erect suitable buildings thereon, obtaining immediate revenue from rents and receiving all benefits from increase in values.

The shares of stock are for sale and books now open. Monthly payments 10 cents per share, fully paid up in 60 months. This stock should then be worth fully double its par value. For further information apply to any officer of the company, Director or Agent. Over 11,000 shares are now subscribed.

Still Growing.
A glance at the map of Powning's Addition shows that with but very few exceptions all of the most eligible lots have been sold. Along the entire river front, or Riverside Avenue, there are only three corners left, while on Second street there are but four that are not sold. People wonder how it happens, but Reno keeps on growing just the same, and those who are still hunting bargains should buy a lot in Powning's Addition while lots are yet reasonable.

Is Life Worth Living?
Depends on the liver. If suffering with indigestion, or troubled with malaria, that tired, worn out feeling, you will consider life worth very little. But when relieved of these by taking Simmons' Liver Regulator you will count life a blessing and keep the Regulator on hand for any sudden attack of biliousness and sick headache. An active liver makes life a delight. Don't forget the Regulator with a red Z.

Blooded.
While we discountenance betting schemes as an argument to convert voters, still we feel like accommodating those who need accommodation. Anyone doubting the success of the Weaver ticket in Colorado, and desirous of backing up such doubts, can be pleasantly attended to in amounts of $50 to $500 up to the sum of $12,000. First come, first served.—The Road, Denver.

IS A VOTE FOR WEAVER A VOTE FOR CLEVELAND?

A Hypothesis Which the People of Nevada are Invited to Study—What is Probable in the Electoral College. It has been confidently asserted on many occasions that a vote for Weaver is a vote for Cleveland. The bugbear of Democratic ascendancy with free trade and anti-silver Cleveland in the chair has been used as a pretext to deter from voting as they would, men who honestly wish to vote for the only man for President of the United States who is in favor of free coinage. In the South, the Southern Populists are denounced as inviting the Force bill who have announced themselves as intending to vote for Weaver, for in that section it is declared as emphatically that a vote for Weaver is a vote for Harrison.

To show that a vote for Weaver is at least not a vote for Cleveland, the following hypothesis of the situation most likely to occur after the 8th day of November is presented. To make the matter the clearer, let it be conceived that the election is past, and the following dispatches appear in the columns of the press at about the dates mentioned:

OFFICIAL RETURNS. WASHINGTON, D. C., November 10.—Official returns are in from all the States and Territories, giving Harrison 192 votes in the Electoral College, Cleveland 165 and Weaver 86. The election will naturally be thrown into the House where Cleveland will be elected President of the United States by vote of the States.

A COMBINE. New York, November 27.—The Herald will say in an editorial to-morrow: "The situation in the Electoral College is without a parallel in the history of this country. The 86 votes for General Weaver if voted for Cleveland or Harrison, would elect either of them President of the United States. It is safe to say that the Democrats are contented with the situation as it is. But the Weaver electors and Harrison electors have it in their power to name the next President."

"In the beginning of the Government it was the duty of the electors themselves to select and elect the President and Vice President without the intervention of political parties. Indeed the system of National party conventions and pledged electors now in vogue was not then dreamed of. The question at the present time is, shall Grover Cleveland be the next President? May not the 279 electors, whose votes, as the matter now stands, will be lost, meet together in convention and select a compromise candidate, whom they with the consent of their constituents in the several States can elect President? Will the Republican and People's party electors allow Cleveland to be the next President by default?"

PENNSYLVANIA PROTECTIONISTS. PHILADELPHIA, December 10.—Mass meetings have been held by the Republicans all over this State in every instance of which resolutions were passed urging the Republican electors to agree with the People's party electors on a compromise candidate. It is argued that the election of Cleveland would be a calamity of off-putting the protection interests of Pennsylvania.

GENERAL WEAVER ISSUES A MANIFESTO. DES MOINES, December 15.—General Weaver today issued a manifesto to the voters of the People's party who sustained him in the last election and the Presidential electors pledged for him, that he will not stand in the way of a compromise candidate being chosen for President, and so far as he may refuse those so pledged for him, of their obligation of voting for him in the Electoral College, provided they can agree with the Republican electors upon a compromise candidate.

OVERTURES TO THE PEOPLE'S PARTY NATIONAL COMMITTEE. New York, December 28.—Chairman Carter of the Republican National Committee, by the advice of a large number of eminent Republicans, has addressed a letter to Chairman Taubeneck of the National Committee of the People's party, inviting him to co-operate in a call to be issued jointly by both committees for a convention of Presidential electors, the first ever held in the history of the United States for the purpose of electing a President of the United States.

TAUBENECK ACCEPTS. INDIANAPOLIS, January 1.—Chairman Taubeneck of the People's party National Committee yesterday accepted the invitation of Chairman Carter to issue a joint call for a convention of Presidential electors and names January 30th as the date, and Omaha as the place for holding the convention.

WALTER Q. GRESHAM SELECTED AS FREQUENT.

OMAHA, January 30.—The first convention of its kind in history assembled in this city to-day. It was a convention for the purpose of selecting a President of the United States by the men who will elect him President. The convention was composed of 279 delegates, 192 being Republican electors and 86 People's party electors. Although numerically but half as many, the 86 Populists will have as much weight in the deliberations of the convention as the 192 Republicans.

After the election of temporary officers the convention appointed a Conference Committee consisting of ten Republicans and ten Populists. The convention then adjourned until evening.

At the evening session the Conference Committee reported in favor of a platform endorsing two issues only, protection and the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at the present ratio of 16 to 1.

The committee presented the name of Walter Q. Gresham of Indiana for President of the United States and Don Cameron of Pennsylvania for Vice President. The committee reported that the two parties should share equally in Federal patronage. At the conclusion of the reading of the report, the hall was rent with cheers. A motion to adopt the report of the committee was carried unanimously amid the wildest demonstrations.

GRESHAM ELECTED. WASHINGTON, D. C. March 4.—Walter Q. Gresham was officially installed President of the United States to-day. He declared in his inaugural speech that his first act would be to call an extra session of Congress for the purpose of passing a free coinage bill.

DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Another Case of Straight-Out, With-Drawing.

The Democratic State Central Committee, at their meeting in Carson yesterday, followed in the footsteps of their Republican brethren, and would not be satisfied with the decision of the majority. Nine members, when they found that the majority of the committee was in favor of passing the nomination of Presidential Electors, withdrew and held a meeting of their own.

After the meeting had been called to order those holding proxies were asked to present the same to the Secretary, and it was found that with seventeen of them there were letters of instructions against the nomination of electors. The Secretary was called upon to read the instructions, which he did. Argument indulged in as to the advisability of placing electors in the field developed the fact that a majority was in favor of passing it, and before a vote could be taken thereon nine of the members withdrew. The remaining members, however, continued their business. After deciding that no electors be nominated the meeting adjourned for one week.

The straight-out, consisting of C. A. Jones, C. W. Irish, John H. Dennis, G. F. Lemmon, W. Noyes, J. C. Hagerman of Reno, and Joseph R. Ryan and J. Daley of Virginia City, and M. S. Esnor of Carson, went into meeting in J. R. Judge's office and nominated Theodore Winter, Joseph R. Ryan and J. F. Riley for Presidential Electors and J. C. Hagerman for Congress.

It is understood that they endorsed Gen. R. M. Clarke for United States Senator.

School Attendance.

Reno, the Athens of Nevada, if proud of nothing else, boasts, and justly so, of having more, and perhaps better educational institutions in her precincts than most towns of her size. At all of these work for the year has begun and the pupils have settled down, more or less contentedly, to the routine of school life.

The public schools make a good showing having 504 pupils enrolled in the different departments, a larger number than was enrolled at any time in the course of the past school year. This, however, though an increase over the past year, is not the largest number that the school registers have shown at one time, some three or four years since there were 555 pupils enrolled and the average daily attendance numbered from 535 to 555 throughout the year.

This apparent decrease in the number attending is probably owing to the fact that the University attracts some who would otherwise be in the public schools, not that the population is decreasing.

A Marriage.

John D. Vargas and Miss Maggie Wilkins, both of Fort McDowell, arrived in Reno yesterday morning and the former hunted County Clerk Perry up and received a marriage license. Last evening the couple were joined in marriage at Whitaker Hall, Rev. Van Derslin officiating. The wedding was a very quiet one, only a few Reno friends being present.

THE LATEST RACKET

Of "Working Suckers" for the Beer.

They have a new way of "working suckers" for the drinks now. A Commercial Bowlsalon is the place where the racket flourishes. An organization known as the "Cob Web and Dust Pan Association" is formed, and if you are a stranger you are invited to sit down as a friend and listen to the speeches and singing executed (the word is used advisedly) by the members. After you have been honored by sitting near this illustrious assemblage for a time and listening to their "gush" someone insinuates that you would make a good man for chairman of the association. The temporary chairman thinks you will be "just the man for the place."

He puts the question before the association and you are unanimously elected. This is where the trouble commences. It is one of the rules of this hobo organization that you are, upon being elected chairman, to treat every member of the concern and their friends, to the drinks. There is no backing out, and in this way the members manage to get a lot of free drinks and work up a nice little jag on the strength of it.

But this is not the worst. Should you refuse to join the organization or after having been elected chairman refuse to treat the members, you are made the subject of a long insulting discourse by the temporary chairman, who is a tall fellow in a faded Prince Albert coat, and who calls himself a newspaper reporter. It seems to make him angry because you refuse to be a "fish." Several persons were insulted by this great orator last Sunday, and it is only a question of time until some of his "fish" shall rise up in their wrath and smite him sorely for making his insulting remarks. It is a wonder to us that the proprietor of the saloon referred to should allow a man to insult his customers or to tolerate such a concern, as the Cob Web Association and its loud-mouthed orator.

PASSED TO HER ETERNAL REST.

Miss Lola Joy Passes Away After a Prolonged Illness.

Yesterday afternoon the cold and cruel breath of death chilled into her eternal rest one whom the people of Reno had known from childhood, one whose unselfish devotion, whose tender and sympathetic feelings for others made her loved by one and all.

Miss Lola V. Joy was born in Washoe City, in this county, and from childhood has been among and known by all the people of this community. She was taken seriously ill last week and gradually grew worse until death released her gentle spirit from the mortal body. Her suffering was intense, but was borne with that characteristic patience and fortitude and implicit trust in the one above, that made her so well loved by those with whom she came in contact. All that the skill of medical science could avail was done. All that the tender sympathy and watchful care of loving parents and anxious friends could do was done. Peacefully she sank into a quiet slumber and slowly faded the spark of human life, to be re-lit with celestial brightness in the home beyond.

We can recognize the taking away of one whose ripened years lessened the pain of parting, but when the life of the valley in the prime of life, in the sunshine of mid-day is withered by a blast that we neither see or feel, we are prone to doubt the wisdom of the one whose impartial hand and all-seeing eye directed the sad event.

As a daughter she was loving and kind; as a friend, sympathetic and tender, and as a woman, noble and true. Her smile was sunshine in the sick room; her voice solace in sorrow and her goodness an example inspiring hope in the wavering.

The death has caused most profound sorrow, and a large circle of friends mourn the untimely loss of one so young and fair.

To Whom It May Concern.

My wife, Irene C. Black, having left my bed and board, without just cause or provocation, I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by her.
